World history or Global history (not to be confused with diplomatic, transnational or international history) is a field of historical study that emerged as a distinct academic field in the 1980s. It examines history from a global perspective. It is not to be confused with comparative history, which, like world history, deals with the history of multiple cultures and nations, but does not do so ...

From gifting to loaning: However, in 1982, the government pulled the plug on this policy of giving bears away, as the animal became endangered. Instead, China's cuddly diplomacy transformed and the bears began to be loaned out to select countries. An Oxford University study from 2013 argues that China's panda loans coincide with important trade deals – the loan representing a “seal of ...
